

No-Return Policy

All sales made through The Dojo, including but not limited to membership fees and any digital products or services, are final.

We do not accept returns or offer refunds, exchanges, or credits once a purchase has been completed. This policy applies to all reasons, including but not limited to:

- "Forgot to cancel"
- Dissatisfaction with the service or content
- Lack of participation or engagement
- Changes in personal circumstances

Exceptions:

The only exception to this no-return policy is in instances where you were demonstrably prevented by our systems from accessing The Dojo Discord Server after a valid purchase. Such cases will be reviewed on an individual basis, and any approved refunds will be at the sole discretion of The Dojo.

By proceeding with your purchase, you acknowledge and agree to this No-Return Policy.
