HalePath

TERMS OF SERVICE

Effective date: 25 September 2026

Please read these Terms carefully. By purchasing, accessing, or using HalePath products, content, communities, or services, you agree to these Terms.

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern your access to and use of HalePath digital products, downloadable resources, community spaces, support channels, and related services made available through Whop or any other HalePath sales or delivery channel (collectively, the "Services"). In these Terms, "HalePath," "we," "us," and "our" refer to the HalePath brand and its operator. "You" and "your" refer to the purchaser, member, visitor, or user of the Services.

1. Acceptance of These Terms

By creating an account, purchasing a HalePath product, joining a HalePath community, downloading a resource, or otherwise using the Services, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree, do not purchase or use the Services.

If you use the Services on behalf of an organization, you represent that you have authority to bind that organization to these Terms.

2. Eligibility and Account Responsibility

You must have legal capacity to enter into a binding agreement in your jurisdiction. If applicable law requires parental or guardian consent for a purchase or service, that consent must be obtained before use.

Where access is provided through a Whop or other third-party account, you are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and security of your login credentials and for activity occurring under your account. Notify the relevant platform and HalePath support promptly if you believe your account has been compromised.

3. What HalePath Provides

HalePath provides practical digital health and wellness education, guides, decision tools, templates, worksheets, training resources, community features, and related informational content. Product contents, formats, access periods, bonuses, and features may vary by offer and will be described on the applicable product page or checkout page.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, HalePath products are digital products delivered electronically. No physical item is shipped.

4. Health, Fitness, and Educational Disclaimer

HalePath content is provided for general educational and informational purposes only. It is not medical advice, diagnosis, treatment, physiotherapy, rehabilitation, dietetic care, mental-health care, or individualized professional guidance.

- Consult an appropriately qualified healthcare professional before starting or materially changing an exercise, nutrition, wellness, or health routine, particularly if you have a medical condition, injury, pain, pregnancy-related concern, medication question, bone-health concern, or other health risk.
- Stop an activity and seek appropriate professional advice if you experience sharp or persistent pain, unusual weakness, dizziness, fainting, chest pain, breathing difficulty, or other concerning symptoms.

- Results vary between individuals. HalePath does not guarantee specific health, fitness, strength, body-composition, recovery, pain, or performance outcomes.

Your use of HalePath content does not create a doctor-patient, therapist-client, trainer-client, dietitian-client, or other licensed professional relationship with HalePath.

5. Purchases, Pricing, and Payment

Prices and included features are shown at the time of purchase. Unless otherwise stated, prices are displayed in the currency shown at checkout. You are responsible for reviewing the product description, price, and included resources before completing your purchase.

Payments may be processed by Whop or other third-party payment processors. Those providers may have separate terms, privacy practices, payment rules, or account requirements that apply to your transaction. HalePath does not control third-party payment systems.

You are responsible for any taxes, duties, bank charges, currency-conversion costs, or similar amounts that apply to your purchase, except where the checkout process expressly states that such amounts are included.

6. Digital Delivery and Access

After a successful purchase, digital access is generally provided through the HalePath area on Whop or through another delivery method stated at checkout. Access instructions may be delivered through the product area, Files app, announcement area, email, or other designated channel.

You are responsible for having compatible devices, software, and internet access needed to view or download digital materials. We may update the layout, file organization, delivery method, or platform used to provide the Services, provided this does not materially remove the core content you purchased without an appropriate remedy.

7. Personal-Use License and Intellectual Property

All HalePath content, including text, guides, PDFs, worksheets, templates, graphics, videos, branding, logos, methods, frameworks, product names, and other materials, is owned by or licensed to HalePath and is protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

When you purchase a digital product, HalePath grants you a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use the purchased materials for your own lawful personal use, subject to these Terms.

You may not, without prior written permission:

- Copy, reproduce, republish, upload, post, transmit, distribute, resell, sublicense, rent, share, or commercially exploit HalePath materials.
- Share account access, download links, files, or paid content with people who did not purchase access.
- Remove copyright, trademark, attribution, watermark, or proprietary notices.
- Create derivative products primarily by copying, repackaging, translating, or adapting HalePath materials for resale or distribution.
- Use HalePath content to train, populate, or build a competing commercial product, database, course, guide, or automated content system without written authorization.

Nothing in these Terms transfers ownership of HalePath intellectual property to you.

8. Community and Support Conduct

If your purchase includes Community Chat, announcements, support chat, comments, or other interactive features, you agree to use them respectfully and lawfully.

You must not:

- Harass, threaten, abuse, impersonate, discriminate against, or intentionally intimidate other users or staff.
- Post unlawful, defamatory, fraudulent, sexually explicit, hateful, malicious, or intentionally harmful material.
- Post spam, unauthorized promotions, scams, malware, harmful links, or deceptive solicitations.
- Share another person's private or confidential information without authorization.
- Present personal opinions as professional medical advice or encourage another user to ignore appropriate professional care.

We may remove content, restrict community features, or suspend access when reasonably necessary to protect users, enforce these Terms, comply with law, or maintain the integrity of the Services.

9. User-Submitted Content

If you submit comments, questions, feedback, reviews, or other content through HalePath community or support features, you retain ownership of content you lawfully own. You grant HalePath a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to host, display, reproduce, and use that content only as reasonably necessary to operate, moderate, improve, and support the Services, unless you separately authorize broader promotional use.

Do not submit confidential health records, passwords, government identification numbers, payment-card details, or other sensitive information that is not necessary for support.

10. Refunds, Returns, and Product Guarantees

Because HalePath primarily sells digital products, refund eligibility may differ from physical-product returns. Any refund, return, cancellation, or product-specific guarantee is governed by the Return Policy displayed by HalePath and by any specific guarantee terms presented on the relevant product page or at checkout.

Where a product expressly includes a guarantee, such as a stated 30-day satisfaction or practical-decision guarantee, you must submit a refund request within the stated period and follow the conditions disclosed for that offer. A guarantee does not promise a particular health or performance outcome; it provides the refund remedy described in the applicable offer terms.

Nothing in these Terms limits any non-waivable refund, cancellation, or consumer rights you may have under applicable law.

11. Acceptable Use

You may use the Services only for lawful purposes and in accordance with these Terms. You must not interfere with the operation or security of the Services, attempt unauthorized access, scrape or harvest restricted content at scale, circumvent access controls, or use the Services in a way that infringes the rights of HalePath, Whop, another user, or any third party.

12. Third-Party Platforms and Links

The Services may rely on or link to third-party platforms, including Whop, payment providers, hosting services, communication tools, or external websites. HalePath is not responsible for the availability, security, content, or practices of third-party services. Your use of a third-party service is subject to that provider's own terms and policies.

13. Availability, Updates, and Changes to the Services

We aim to keep purchased content reasonably available, but uninterrupted or error-free access is not guaranteed. Maintenance, platform outages, security issues, technical failures, or events outside our reasonable control may temporarily affect access.

We may improve, revise, reorganize, replace, or update HalePath content over time. We may also discontinue a product or feature. Where a change materially affects a paid entitlement, we will take reasonable steps consistent with the offer, applicable law, and platform capabilities.

14. Suspension or Termination of Access

We may suspend or terminate access if you materially breach these Terms, misuse paid content, engage in fraud or abusive conduct, threaten the security or integrity of the Services, or if continued access would violate law or third-party platform requirements.

Termination for breach does not give you permission to retain, share, or continue using materials beyond any rights that survive termination under applicable law or an approved refund arrangement.

15. Disclaimers

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Services are provided on an "as available" and "as is" basis. HalePath does not make warranties that the Services will be uninterrupted, error-free, suitable for every individual, or produce any particular result.

HalePath does not warrant that any specific exercise, training approach, wellness practice, or informational recommendation is appropriate for your personal circumstances. You remain responsible for your own decisions, use of the materials, and obtaining professional advice where appropriate.

16. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, HalePath and its operator, affiliates, contractors, and service providers will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages, or for loss of profits, revenue, data, opportunity, goodwill, or anticipated savings arising from or related to the Services.

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, HalePath's aggregate liability for a claim relating to a specific paid product will not exceed the amount you actually paid to HalePath for that product during the twelve months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

Some jurisdictions do not allow certain exclusions or limitations of liability. In those jurisdictions, these limitations apply only to the extent permitted by law.

17. Indemnification

To the extent permitted by applicable law, you agree to indemnify and hold HalePath and its operator harmless from third-party claims, losses, liabilities, damages, and reasonable costs arising from your unlawful use of the Services, your infringement of another person's rights, your unauthorized distribution of HalePath materials, or your material breach of these Terms.

18. Privacy

Our handling of personal information is governed by the HalePath Privacy Policy, when published and made available through the HalePath store or legal settings. Third-party platforms such as Whop may collect and process information under their own privacy policies.

19. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms when our products, business practices, legal obligations, or platform arrangements change. The updated version will show a revised effective date. Where required by law, or where a change materially affects existing rights, we will provide additional notice or obtain consent as appropriate.

Your continued use of the Services after updated Terms become effective constitutes acceptance to the extent permitted by applicable law. Changes will not retroactively remove rights that cannot lawfully be waived.

20. Governing Rules and Dispute Resolution

These Terms are interpreted under the laws that lawfully apply to HalePath's business operations and your transaction, including any mandatory consumer-protection rules that cannot be waived by contract. Any dispute must be brought before a court, tribunal, or other forum that has lawful jurisdiction over the dispute.

Before starting formal proceedings, we encourage you to contact HalePath support so that we can attempt to resolve the issue in good faith. This informal step does not restrict any legal deadline or non-waivable right available to you.

21. Severability and Entire Agreement

If any provision of these Terms is found unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain in effect to the fullest extent permitted by law. These Terms, together with any product-specific terms, checkout disclosures, applicable Return Policy, Privacy Policy, and express guarantee terms, form the agreement governing your use of the Services.

22. Contact and Support

For questions about your purchase, account access, product delivery, or these Terms, use the HalePath Support Chat available within the HalePath Whop space or the contact details displayed on the HalePath storefront or checkout page.
