End User License Agreement (EULA)

ShopSociety LLC · TikTok Shop Affiliate Course and Mentorship

Effective date: October 28, 2026

1. Agreement

This End User License Agreement ("Agreement") is between ShopSociety LLC ("we," "us," or "our") and you ("you" or "Student"). It covers your use of the TikTok Shop Affiliate Course and Mentorship, including the training videos, lessons, templates, files, live calls, community access, and any other materials we provide (together, the "Content"). By buying, accessing, or using the Mentorship, you agree to this Agreement. If you don't agree, don't purchase or use it.

This Agreement works together with our Terms of Service, Refund Policy, Privacy Policy, and the agreement you sign before you pay (the "Student Agreement"). If this Agreement conflicts with the Terms of Service on the same subject, this Agreement controls. If the option you buy includes a TikTok account provided by us, the Terms of Service explain the terms for that account, including that it is not refundable. The Content here means the course materials and does not include that account.

You must be at least 18 years old to use the Mentorship.

2. License Grant

When you pay in full (or stay current on a payment plan), we grant you a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, revocable license to view and use the Content for your own personal learning and business use. You do not own the Content. We keep all rights to it.

3. Restrictions

You may not, and may not let anyone else:

- Share, lend, sell, or transfer your login or account.
- Record, screen-capture, download, copy, or reproduce the Content, except for personal notes.

- Share, post, leak, or distribute the Content in any form, including in Discord servers, Telegram, group chats, file-sharing sites, social media, or other courses or communities.
- Resell, license, rent, or commercially exploit the Content.
- Teach, repackage, or use the Content to build a competing course, mentorship, or coaching product.
- Remove copyright notices, watermarks, or identifying marks from the Content.
- Try to get around access controls or security measures.

4. Ownership and Intellectual Property

The Content is protected by copyright and other intellectual property laws. All trademarks, logos, and branding belong to ShopSociety LLC. This Agreement gives you a license to use the Content and does not transfer any ownership to you.

5. Watermarks and Tracking

Some Content may carry watermarks or identifiers, such as your name or email, so we can trace leaks. You agree not to remove or alter them. We may keep access and login records to enforce this Agreement.

6. Account Rules

- Your access is for one person. You are responsible for all activity on your account.
- Keep your login private. Tell us right away if you think someone else has accessed your account.
- We may monitor access for signs of account sharing, such as logins from many locations or devices at once.

7. Community Conduct

Access to our Discord community is part of the Mentorship. You agree to:

- Be respectful, and not harass, threaten, or discriminate against others.
- Not spam, scam, or promote your own products or services without permission.
- Not post unlawful content or other people’s private information.

- Follow Discord's terms and the community rules.

We may remove you from the community for breaking these rules.

8. Affiliate Participation

If you apply for or use an affiliate link, you must also follow the affiliate terms we give you. You must clearly disclose that you earn a commission when you promote the Mentorship, as required by the FTC and other laws. You may not make false, misleading, or exaggerated claims about the Mentorship or its results, including income claims. You may not say or imply that the Mentorship will pay for itself, or that a student will earn back the purchase price. If you mention the refund, you must describe it accurately: it has requirements, it is not a guarantee of income, and you must link to the Refund Policy. We may approve, deny, or end any affiliate account at our discretion.

9. Your Own TikTok Activity

You are responsible for your own TikTok account and content. You must follow TikTok's and TikTok Shop's terms, community guidelines, and applicable laws, including advertising and disclosure rules. We don't control TikTok or TikTok Shop, and we aren't responsible if your account is limited, suspended, or banned, or if their rules or programs change.

10. No Guarantee of Results

The Mentorship is educational. We do not guarantee any income, sales, commissions, or results. The Conditional Refund in the Refund Policy is a limited refund offer with requirements, not a guarantee of income or results. Any examples or results we share are not typical and are not a promise of what you will earn. Your results depend on your effort, skills, market, and factors we don't control. The Content is not legal, tax, or financial advice.

11. Refunds

All purchases are final, except as stated in our Refund Policy. The Refund Policy is part of this Agreement. If a refund is approved and paid, your license ends, your access to the Mentorship and the community ends, and you must stop using the Content and delete any copies you hold.

12. Termination

We may suspend or end your access immediately and without a refund if you break this Agreement, including by sharing your account or Content. You may stop using the Mentorship at any time, but that does not entitle you to a refund. If your access ends, your license ends, and you must stop using the Content and delete any copies you hold. Sections that by their nature should continue, such as ownership, restrictions, remedies, and liability, will continue after termination.

13. Remedies for Violations

You agree that breaking Sections 3 through 6 would harm us in ways that are hard to measure. In addition to ending your access, we may:

- Send takedown notices (including under the DMCA) to hosts, platforms, and search engines.
- Seek an injunction to stop further sharing, without having to post a bond, to the extent the law allows.
- Seek damages and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, to the extent the law allows.

14. Updates to the Content

We may add to, change, or remove Content at any time. We don't promise any particular amount of Content, and we don't promise that live calls or community features will always be available.

15. Disclaimer of Warranties

The Mentorship and Content are provided "as is" and "as available." To the fullest extent the law allows, we disclaim all warranties, express or implied, including fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement. We don't promise the Mentorship will be uninterrupted or error-free.

16. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent the law allows, ShopSociety LLC and its owners, team members, and contractors are not liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, or for lost profits, revenue, or data. Our total liability to you for any claim related to the Mentorship will not exceed the amount you paid for it. Some states don't allow these limits, so they may not apply to you.

17. Indemnification

You agree to defend and hold harmless ShopSociety LLC from claims, losses, and costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that come from your breach of this Agreement, your misuse of the Content, or your TikTok activity, to the extent the law allows.

18. Dispute Resolution and Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Kansas, without regard to conflict-of-law rules. Before filing a claim, you agree to contact us at shopsocietysupport@gmail.com and try to resolve the issue informally for at least 30 days. Any dispute that isn't resolved will be handled exclusively in the state courts located in Douglas County, Kansas, or the U.S. District Court for the District of Kansas. You agree to the jurisdiction and venue of those courts.

19. General Terms

- Entire agreement. This Agreement, the Terms of Service, the Refund Policy, the Privacy Policy, and your Student Agreement are the full agreement between you and us.
- Changes. We may update this Agreement. The version in effect on the date you purchased applies to you, unless the law requires otherwise or you accept an updated version.
- Severability. If any part is found unenforceable, the rest stays in effect.
- No waiver. If we don't enforce a right, we haven't given it up.
- Assignment. You can't transfer this Agreement. We may transfer it as part of a sale or merger.
- Electronic acceptance. You agree that clicking to accept, or paying for and using the Mentorship, is a valid electronic signature and agreement.
