Privacy Policy

First 1,000$ online · Last updated November 9, 2026

The short version

[ ] We only collect what we need to deliver your book and support you.

[ ] Whop handles your card. We never see the full number.

[ ] We don't sell your information. Ever.

What we collect

- Your order: name, email and order details, shared with us by Whop when you buy.
- Your messages: anything you send us through Whop support chat.
- Site visits: basic analytics like pages viewed, device, rough location and how you found us. Our site runs on Whop, which uses the Whop Pixel and similar tools to count visits and sales.

What we do with it

- Deliver the book and keep your access working
- Answer your questions
- Stop fraud and handle refunds or disputes
- Figure out what's working on our site
- Send updates about your purchase (and if we ever send marketing emails, one click unsubscribes you)

Who we share it with

Only the services that keep the business running, mainly Whop and its payment and hosting partners, or anyone the law requires us to share it with. We don't sell it.

Cookies

Our site and Whop use cookies for checkout, security and analytics. You can block them in your browser, but checkout might not work properly.

How long we keep it

As long as we need it to keep your access working, meet tax and legal requirements, and settle any disputes.

Your choices

Depending on where you live, you can ask to see, correct or delete your information. To do that, message us through the Support chat in our Whop store (First 1,000$ online).

Security and age

We rely on Whop's security for payments and logins. Nothing online is 100% secure, but we take it seriously. The book is for adults 18+, and we don't knowingly collect information from anyone younger.

Changes

If we update this policy, the date at the top changes.
