Privacy Policy

DIGYBOX, a brand operated by Scalehood LLC | Effective date: November 17, 2026

1. Who we are

DIGYBOX is a brand operated by Scalehood LLC, a Wyoming limited liability company ("DIGYBOX", "we"), which is responsible for the personal information described in this policy. Contact: contact@digybox.online.

2. Information we collect

- Business contact details that businesses publish on their websites or social media, such as a business name, contact name and business email address, which we use to offer our services.
- Information you send us, such as your name, email, business details, logos, product photos and answers to our brief questions.
- Payment information, which is collected and processed by our payment provider, Whop. We do not see or store your full card details.
- Communications between you and us.

3. How we use it

- To contact businesses about our services.
- To create, deliver and support the Content you request.
- To process payments, keep business records and meet legal obligations.
- To show Content in our portfolio, unless you ask us not to.

4. Business outreach and opting out

We may contact businesses using publicly listed business contact details. Every message you receive from us can be answered with a request to stop, and we will not contact you again.

5. Who we share it with

We do not sell personal information. We share it only with service providers that help us run our business, such as our payment provider (Whop), our email and file storage provider (Google Workspace) and the AI tools we use to create Content, which may process the materials you provide. We may also disclose information where required by law.

6. How long we keep it

We keep project files for up to 12 months after delivery and then delete them. We keep payment and business records for as long as required by law. Outreach contact details are deleted when you ask us to stop contacting you.

7. Your rights

You can ask us to access, correct or delete your personal information, or to stop contacting you, by emailing contact@digybox.online. If you are in the UK or the European Union, you also have rights under data protection law, including the right to object to processing and to complain to your local data protection authority. Our lawful bases are our legitimate interest in offering our services to businesses and, for clients, the performance of our agreement with you.

8. Security

We use reputable service providers and reasonable measures to protect information, including private, access-controlled file sharing. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure.

9. Children

Our services are for businesses and are not directed at anyone under 18.

10. Changes

We may update this policy. The effective date at the top shows when it was last changed.
