

Refund and Cancellation Policy

Cancellations Our indicator is offered on a subscription basis. You may cancel your subscription at any time through your Whop user dashboard.

- When you cancel, you will retain access to the indicator until the end of your current paid billing cycle.
- To avoid being charged for the next billing cycle, you must cancel your subscription before the renewal date.

Refunds Because our product is a digital good and software access is granted immediately upon purchase, all sales are final. We do not offer refunds, partial refunds, or prorated refunds for any unused time in a billing cycle.

If you experience technical issues installing the indicator on your NinjaTrader platform, please contact our support team at support@magmagoldsignal.com, and we will be happy to assist you.
