DIGITAL SERVICE

No ownership transfer

A purchase does not transfer source code, intellectual property, redistribution or sublicensing rights.

be transferred or shared.

ANALYTICAL USE

No guaranteed outcome

Products support chart analysis and do not provide financial advice, automated trading or guaranteed results.

1. Product access

AGProLabs products provide personal, non-transferable access to selected invite-only TradingView Pine Script tools. Access is enabled for the TradingView username submitted at checkout.

2. Acceptable use

You may use purchased access only through your own TradingView account. Sharing, reselling, sublicensing, copying, reverse engineering, circumventing access controls or unlawful use is prohibited.

3. Activation

Activation is performed manually after payment confirmation. Customers are responsible for supplying a valid TradingView username. Incorrect information or third-party service availability may delay activation.

4. Annual and lifetime access

Annual access lasts for the stated term. Lifetime access refers to the commercial lifetime of the purchased AGProLabs product while it remains supported and technically available; it does not guarantee perpetual operation of third-party platforms.

5. Payment and refunds

Available payment routes depend on the product and checkout. Refund and cancellation requests are reviewed under the Refund Policy, payment-provider rules.

6. Third-party platforms

TradingView and payment providers are independent third parties with their own terms, systems and technical requirements. AGProLabs is not affiliated with or endorsed by TradingView.

7. No financial advice

Products are educational and analytical software tools. They do not constitute financial, investment, legal, accounting or tax advice and do not guarantee results.

8. Changes and suspension

AGProLabs may update products, documentation and these terms. Access may be suspended for fraud, chargeback abuse, unauthorized sharing, circumvention of access controls or material breach of these terms.

9. Privacy

Order, access and support information is handled as described in the Privacy Policy. Never send passwords, full card details, wallet seed phrases or private keys.

10. Mandatory rights

Nothing in these terms removes or limits mandatory consumer rights that cannot legally be waived. Where a provision conflicts with applicable mandatory law, that law controls to the required extent.

Use is personal. Analysis remains your responsibility.

Review the product page, access term, payment route, Refund Policy and Risk Disclosure before ordering.
