By using our services, you consent to the practices described in this policy.

Information We Collect

We may collect personal information that you voluntarily provide, including your name, email address, payment information, and any details submitted during checkout or account creation. Whop processes all payments securely, and Herbal Wellness does not store your financial information.

How Your Email Is Used

When you provide your email address, you consent to receive emails from Herbal Wellness. These emails may include product updates, educational content, promotional offers, marketing announcements, and newsletters related to natural wellness. You may unsubscribe at any time by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any email. Unsubscribing removes you from marketing communications but does not affect transactional emails related to your purchase.

How We Use Your Information

We use the information collected to deliver purchased digital products, provide customer support, send marketing emails, improve our products and services, manage your account, and comply with legal requirements.

Sharing of Information

We do not sell or rent your personal information. Your data may be shared with third party service providers such as Whop, email service platforms, or analytics tools that help us operate our business. These providers only receive the information necessary to perform their services and must protect it according to their own privacy practices.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

Our website and Whop's platform may use cookies or similar technologies to improve user experience, track performance, and support affiliate tracking. You can modify cookie settings in your browser if you wish to limit such tracking.

Data Security

We take reasonable steps to protect your information from unauthorized access or disclosure. While no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is completely secure, we strive to follow best practices to safeguard your data.

Data Retention

We retain personal information for as long as needed to deliver purchased products, provide customer support, maintain email communication, or meet legal obligations.
