

End User License Agreement

Last updated: 5 July 2026

This End User License Agreement (the "EULA") governs your access to and use of StrategyFactory.ai software, tools, content, strategies, automations, data, interfaces, Telegram bots, APIs, dashboards, and related services (the "Software").

1) License Grant

Subject to your compliance with this EULA and the Terms of Service, StrategyFactory.ai grants you a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable license to access and use the Software for your personal or internal business purposes.

2) No Ownership Transfer

The Software is licensed, not sold. StrategyFactory.ai and its licensors retain all rights, title, and interest in the Software, including all software code, strategy logic, designs, text, content, data, branding, documentation, and intellectual property rights.

3) Restrictions

You must not:

- Copy, resell, sublicense, rent, lease, distribute, or commercially exploit the Software.
- Share your account, login credentials, private access links, or restricted content with others.

- Reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, scrape, or attempt to extract source code or strategy logic.
- Bypass access controls, usage limits, payment restrictions, or security measures.
- Use the Software to provide competing services or unauthorized managed trading services.
- Use the Software in a way that violates any law, regulation, sanctions rule, or third-party right.

4) Trading and Automation Risk

The Software is a technical and informational tool. It does not provide financial, investment, legal, tax, or trading advice. Automated and semi-automated trading can create substantial risk, including the risk of losing all or more than your initial investment. Backtests, forward tests, examples, alerts, and metrics do not guarantee future results.

5) Third-Party Services

The Software may depend on third-party services, including exchanges, TradingView, Telegram, Whop, hosting providers, analytics providers, and other integrations. StrategyFactory.ai is not responsible for third-party outages, delays, data issues, execution issues, fees, restrictions, or security incidents.

6) Updates and Changes

We may update, modify, suspend, replace, or discontinue any part of the Software at any time. Features, plans, integrations, data, and availability may change without notice.

7) Termination

This license remains in effect until terminated. We may suspend or terminate your access if you breach this EULA, fail to pay applicable fees, misuse the Software, create legal or security risk, or violate the Terms of Service. Upon termination, you must stop using the Software and any restricted content.

8) Disclaimer of Warranties

The Software is provided "as is" and "as available" to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law. We do not warrant that the Software will be uninterrupted, error-free, secure, accurate, complete, profitable, or suitable for your specific goals.

9) Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, StrategyFactory.ai will not be liable for trading losses, lost profits, lost opportunities, loss of data, exchange losses, third-party failures, indirect damages, incidental damages, consequential damages, or punitive damages arising from or related to your use of the Software.

10) Relationship to Other Terms

This EULA supplements the Terms of Service, Privacy Policy, Risk Disclaimer, and Returns Policy. If there is a conflict between this EULA and the Terms of Service, the Terms of Service will control unless expressly stated otherwise.
