

End User License Agreement (EULA)

1. License Grant

Upon purchase, She Closed It First Academy, LLC ("SCIF Academy") grants you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to access and use the purchased program materials solely for your personal learning and professional development.

2. Intellectual Property

All course materials, frameworks, scripts, templates, and content provided by SCIF Academy are proprietary and protected by copyright law.

SCIF Academy retains all intellectual property rights to the program materials.

3. Permitted Use

You may: Access and view program materials for personal learning, apply learned concepts and techniques in your own sales practice, and take personal notes for your own reference.

4. Prohibited Use

You may NOT: Copy, reproduce, or distribute any program materials, share your login credentials with others, resell, sublicense, or commercially exploit any materials, create derivative works based on our content, record or screenshot program content for distribution, or share materials in any public forum or with non-enrolled individuals.

5. Account Security

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials. You agree not to share your login information with any third party.

Any unauthorized access or sharing may result in immediate termination of your account without refund.

6. Confidentiality

You agree to maintain confidentiality of all business information, strategies, and proprietary methods shared within the program and community.

7. Termination

SCIF Academy reserves the right to terminate your access immediately if you violate any terms of this agreement.

Violations may result in: Immediate termination of program access without refund, and legal action to protect our intellectual property.

8. Acknowledgment

By purchasing and accessing our programs, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by this End User License Agreement.
