OFFICIAL TERMS OF SERVICE & TOURNAMENT RULES

By purchasing access and participating in any events hosted by FancyMan Academy, users explicitly agree to all the terms and conditions outlined below. Please read carefully before securing your tournament access.

1. NON-REFUNDABLE FEES & PARTICIPATION

All participants agree that all entry fees and subscription payments are strictly non-refundable. Participants must follow all provided instructions, including Discord registration protocols, to participate. Failure to adhere to the registration steps does not entitle the user to a refund.

2. SUPPORT & TECHNICAL ISSUES

Any issues, disputes, or requests for assistance must be raised via the official support ticket system within the Discord server. FancyMan Academy is not liable for technical problems, internet outages, or hardware failures on the participant's side that may affect gameplay or event entry.

3. COMPETITIVE INTEGRITY

Fair play is the foundation of our tournaments. Any form of cheating, hacking, exploiting bugs, or using unauthorized third-party software will lead to immediate disqualification from the current event and a potential permanent ban from all future Academy events without a refund.

4. PRIZES & EVENT MODIFICATIONS

Prizes, payouts, and giveaways may be subject to additional eligibility requirements. We reserve the right to modify, postpone, or cancel events at our discretion, including adjusting prize pools based on final participant counts.

5. DATA PRIVACY & INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Participants agree to the use of their submitted data (such as Discord usernames, in-game IDs, and tournament statistics) for event management and promotional purposes. All intellectual property associated with the tournaments, including FancyMan Academy branding and graphics, remains solely ours.

6. LIABILITY & DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Liability is limited to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law. Any legal disputes arising from these terms or participation in events will be governed by the laws of [YOUR JURISDICTION], and all legal actions will be handled exclusively in that jurisdiction's courts.
