

King's Playbook — Privacy Policy

Last Updated: March 2026

King's Playbook respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how information is collected, used, and protected when you join or interact with the King's Playbook Discord community and related services.

By accessing or using the King's Playbook Discord server, website, bots, or related tools, you agree to this Privacy Policy.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect limited information necessary to operate and improve the community, including:

Account Information

- Discord username and user ID
- Display name and profile information
- Server participation and activity

Membership Information

- Email address (if provided through payment platforms such as subscription services)
- Subscription status and membership tier

Technical Information

- Bot interactions and command usage
- Messages submitted to tools such as Crown Bot for processing
- Basic analytics related to server usage

King's Playbook does not collect payment information directly. Payments are processed through third-party platforms.

2. How Your Information Is Used

Information may be used to:

- Provide access to server features and membership tiers
- Operate and improve Crown Bot and related tools
- Manage subscriptions and affiliate programs
- Monitor community safety and enforce server rules
- Improve analytics, performance, and user experience

Your information will never be sold to third parties.

3. Third-Party Services

King's Playbook uses trusted third-party platforms to operate parts of the service.

These may include services such as:

- Discord
- Payment and subscription platforms
- Data providers and APIs used by Crown Bot

These services may collect information in accordance with their own privacy policies.

Users are encouraged to review the privacy policies of those platforms.

4. Data Protection

We take reasonable steps to protect information within the community.

However, no online service can guarantee absolute security. By using the service, you acknowledge that data transmission over the internet carries inherent risk.

5. Information Sharing

King's Playbook does not sell, rent, or trade personal information.

Information may only be shared if required:

- To comply with legal obligations

- To enforce server rules or protect the community
- To operate core platform services

6. Data Retention

Information may be retained as long as necessary to:

- Maintain server functionality
- Operate subscriptions and access control
- Improve services and tools

Users may leave the Discord server at any time, which will remove future data collection related to server participation.

7. User Responsibility

Users are responsible for the information they voluntarily share within the community, including messages or posts within public channels.

King's Playbook cannot control how other users may view or interact with publicly shared information.

8. Changes to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated periodically as the platform evolves.

Continued use of King's Playbook services indicates acceptance of any updated policies.

9. Contact

For questions regarding this Privacy Policy, contact the King's Playbook administration team through the Discord server.
