

Privacy Policy

LAST UPDATED: 2026-04-27

FlipDeals takes a minimalist approach to data: we collect what's needed to deliver alerts and bill you, and nothing else. This policy explains exactly what.

What we collect

- From Whop (our payment processor): your email address, subscription status, and Discord user ID. We do not see or store your payment details – Whop handles all card processing.
- From Discord: your Discord user ID and the role assignment that gates VIP channel access. We do not read your DMs or messages in other servers.
- From this website: standard server logs (IP address, user agent, requested URL, timestamp) via our hosting provider, Cloudflare. We do not run any analytics or tracking pixels.

What we do with it

- Grant or revoke access to the VIP Discord channel based on subscription status
- Send transactional emails about your subscription (receipts, renewal reminders, cancellation confirmation) – sent by Whop, not us
- Diagnose technical problems using server logs

What we do NOT do

- Sell your data to anyone, ever
- Send marketing emails (we don't have an email list)
- Use cookies for tracking or advertising
- Share your data with third parties beyond Whop and Discord (which you've already chosen to use)

Third-party services we depend on

- Whop – payment processing, subscription management, Discord role sync. Whop's privacy policy
- Discord – alert delivery and member chat. Discord's privacy policy
- Cloudflare – website hosting and DDoS protection. Cloudflare's privacy policy

Your rights

Cancel your subscription via Whop at any time. To request deletion of any remaining account data, email hello@flipdeal.app and we will process within 14 days.
