

TVE No Refund Policy

At TVE, all sales are final. By purchasing access to our crypto group, you acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. No Refunds – All payments are non-refundable under any circumstances.
2. Discretionary Refunds – Refunds will only be considered if and when Tristan Robinson personally decides to issue one. This is entirely at his discretion and not guaranteed.
3. Proof Requirement for Refund Consideration – If you claim to have made $0, you may request a refund; however, full proof must be attached. Failure to provide complete and verifiable proof will be considered misleading and will result in your request being denied. Refunds will not be issued without sufficient proof.
4. Acceptance of Terms – By completing your purchase, you confirm that you understand and accept this no-refund policy in full.
