

CAPTAIN TRADES END USER LICENCE AGREEMENT (EULA)

International Application
Governing Law: Victoria, Australia
Effective Date: 1 July 2025

1. Licence Grant

Captain Trades grants the user a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to access and use the Digital Products strictly for personal, non-commercial purposes. No ownership rights are transferred.

2. Scope of Digital Products

Digital Products include all courses, videos, recordings, indicators, software tools, downloadable files, templates, written materials, Discord content, live session recordings, and proprietary methodologies provided by Captain Trades.

3. Restrictions and Prohibited Conduct

The user must not copy, record, download (except where expressly permitted), distribute, resell, sublicense, share account access, screen-capture, stream, reverse engineer, decompile, modify, or create derivative works from any Digital Product.

4. Account and Licence Integrity

Licences are personal and tied to the user account. Sharing credentials or allowing third-party access voids the licence immediately.

5. Monitoring and Enforcement

Captain Trades may monitor usage, access patterns, IP addresses, device identifiers, and platform analytics to enforce this Agreement.

6. Intellectual Property Rights

All intellectual property rights remain the exclusive property of Captain Trades. No implied licences are granted.

7. Termination of Licence

Captain Trades may terminate this licence immediately upon breach without refund. Upon termination, all access must cease.

8. Remedies for Breach

Unauthorised use constitutes infringement and breach of contract. Captain Trades may pursue injunctive relief, damages, account termination, blacklisting, and recovery of losses and legal costs.

9. Survival of Obligations

Licence restrictions, intellectual property rights, enforcement rights, and jurisdiction clauses survive termination.

10. No Circumvention

Users must not attempt to bypass technical restrictions, DRM, paywalls, or platform controls.

11. Relationship to Other Policies

This EULA operates in conjunction with the Terms of Service, Return Policy, and Privacy Policy. In the event of conflict, the stricter provision applies.

12. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement applies internationally and is governed by the laws of Victoria, Australia. The user submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Victoria, Australia.

13. Acknowledgement

By accessing any Digital Product, the user confirms they have read, understood, and agreed to this End User Licence Agreement.
