

Return & Refund Policy

Digital Product – No Returns, No Refunds

This Service is a digital product, which means access is granted immediately after purchase.

Because digital content cannot be “returned” once accessed, all sales are final.

- No refunds will be issued under any circumstances
- No refunds for subscription renewals
- No refunds if you forget to cancel your subscription
- No refunds for partial use, inactivity, dissatisfaction, or misunderstanding of the product

Once payment is completed and access is provided, the digital product is considered delivered, used, and consumed, regardless of how much you choose to engage with the content.

By completing your purchase, you:

- Confirm that you are buying voluntarily
- Acknowledge that this is a non-refundable digital product
- Agree that you are not entitled to chargebacks, disputes, or refunds after access is granted

If you do not agree with this policy, do not purchase the Service.
